

12 Jokes and Quotes About MS That Will Make You Smile

MS Quotes and Jokes

I have been asked to write about MS quotes that I enjoy. The truth is, I am not a quote person. A joke person? That's me.

Personally, I find generic quotes to be empty, shallow and cliché.

It is hard for me to say things like, "I might have MS, but MS doesn't have me." Seriously, that has got to be the most annoying thing a person could say.

What I am not holding onto MS. MS is most certainly holding onto me. I just choose to manage my MS well and then ignore it as much as possible. If MS did not have me, then I definitely would not have MS.

Sayings like this bring me down and isolate me. I realize that I am not the spokesman for every person with MS, but have decided to skip the cliché quotes and give you some jokes and my inspirational messages instead.

I hope that my own inspirational MS quotes and jokes make you smile or brightens your day – even if it's just a little.
